

A sustainable and healthy culture

Sustainability policy:

Our commitment

Midsona shall be in full compliance with all applicable legislation and external branch practice and requirements, as well as all internal instructions.

Midsona shall promote a sound culture among our stakeholders and conduct extensive efforts to ensure that we practice what we preach.

Midsona shall take into account all dimensions of sustainable development – financial, social and environmental.

Midsona shall demonstrate leadership and continue to improve our activities, products and services.

Midsona shall take responsibility by cooperating with and committing to educate our suppliers and by encouraging them to align their activities to meet at least Midsona's requirement.

Objective

Midsona shall be a company that is permeated by health and that, based on the employees' own responsibility and possibility, can stimulate and give the employees a chance to have a good health. Midsona shall have an inspiring corporate culture, health promoting measures, collective agreements and a good leadership.

